Circle the proper nouns in the story below. Write them correctly, with the First letter of each word capitalized, on the lines below the story. There are eight proper nouns to find

One morning rajesh woke up late and he had to hurry to get ready for school. His school, st. Mary's elementary school, was about ten minutes away from his house. He picked up his library book, Speaking English, and tucked it into his backpack with his homework. He almost forgot his soccer uniform. He had to practice with the yellow champs, his soccer team, after school. In the wash room he ran a comb through his hair and brushed his teeth with Colgate toothpaste. There was only time for a few bites of his favorite cereal, quikr masala oats. He ran to the car with his mom, and they drove to school. Standing there waiting for him was his best friend, mohit. They both hurried to Mrs. Goyal's classroom, and sat down in their seats as the bell rang.
